"when" and "where" to get your glasses.
There are times when glasses are as much a necessity for the protection and comfort of the eyes as shoes are for the feet. Many a person suffers for years of nervousness, headache, etc., not knowing the eye was at fault. Now our entire time and work is confined to working with the eyes and learning of their needs and what glasses will give the most relief.

TOOTH BRUSH SATISFACTION

A tooth brush is a little thing but it is essential that it do its work and give satisfaction in other respects.

We have a line of imported brushes which are made especially for us and which we sell under a positive guarantee.

If these brushes shed bristles or give trouble in any way, we always wish to replace them free, with new ones.

Costs 25 cents and upwards.

HOME AGAIN—Miss Nellie Coverdale has returned from Minneapolis where she spent the summer.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING—The city council held a short meeting yesterday afternoon for the auditing of the monthly bills and adjourned to meet again Wednesday night at 7:30.

INNOCENCE ABROAD—Dr. O. L.
Martinez spent yesterday in Phoenix.
He said he was not aware of yesterday being circus day until he got here and saw the show in town.

WYANDOTTES WANTED—A letter was received at this office, yesterday, from Paradise, Arizona, inquiring if there was anybody in this city having a pure strain of white Wyandotte chickens.

MOCK-STEARN—Mr. M. E. Mock of Tempe and Miss Viola Stearn, who came here about a week ago from Phoenix, Arizona, inquiring at the parsonage of the M. E. church south, by Rev. H. Coyette.

MINING ABOUT CONGRESS— Frank Czarnowski, marshal of Congress, arrived in the city yesterday, to look after his property here. He is the Indian arrested Sunday for drunkenness, though his name was first erroneously reported as Blackwater.
Lansdown, the man at first suspected of furnishing the Indian with the fire water, was discharged.

LOCATED IN SAN BERNARDINO
The many friends of P. T. Aspinwall in this territory will be pleased to know that he is now located in San Bernardino as city agent for the Salt Lake Moisture company and was at one time a member of the Arizona legislature. Until recently he was for several years engaged in railroad engineering.

UNIVERSITY CADETS—Speaking of the University cadets the Tucson Post says: "Seventy-five boys are now in drill. The former students are taking the drill together, while the green material is being worked out in small squads. Lieutenant McClure is handling raw men in splendid shape and if they work continues as at present he will have a very creditable showing when the inspecting officer reaches Tucson."

PHOENIX GUN CLUB—The Phoenix Gun Club held its first practice shoot yesterday, about twenty members participating. Owing to the lack of practice, good scores were scarce; this, however, will be overcome, as the club will hereafter hold two practice shoots a week. Mr. Alker was high gun, with 86 per cent. Many new members are coming into the club, and preparations are now under way for the annual tournament of the Arizona Sportsman's association, which will be held here under the auspices of the club, the first week in December.

RETURNED FROM CALIFORNIA— Connel and Mrs. J. H. McClintock returned yesterday morning from their summer trip to the coast. Mrs. Mc-Clintock was away all summer, and the Colonel was absent about a month.
His stay was longer than he anticipated by reason of a couple of weeks in Los Angeles devoted mainly to being sick. Though not yet in the best of health, he is able to be at his office and attend to his official duties. Mrs.
McClintock spent the most of the summer in San Francisco and vicinity, where Mr. McClintock joined her a few days before their return.

NO PLACE LIKE PHOENIX—Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Gillette arrived in the city yesterday morning from Eureka, Cal., where, for some time, Mr. Gillette has been at the head of the tailoring department of the Eureka Woolen Mills. Mr. Gillette left Phoenix for California several years ago, but he has found no place so good for the preservation of his health as the Salt River valley. Eureka, he says, is an admirable place in which to live, and is made the more so by the big Arizona colony which has settled there within the last half dozen years, but for climatic reasons he found it necessary to make a change. Mr. Gillette has not yet decided whether he will relocate in Phoenix.

LAND OFFICE HERE—The combined Arizona land office is now at home in Phoenix in its new quarters.
It is a mistake about it being on wheels for it came in big boxes that well reflected the muscles of the freight handlers. Mr. Eldred, the receiver, arrived in the morning from Prescott, and Mr. R.
Moore, the register, came the day before from Tucson. The office will be more or less torn up for a few days until things are settled, but the officers announce that they are ready to do business and attend to all filings or whatever may be desired in an official way. The suite occupied by the office consists of three large rooms. One is the room for the general reception of the public at the counter, and the other two are for the private offices of the register and receiver.

"RAFFLES IS CAUGHT!"

Sidney Osborn of 1329 W. Adams is Lucky in Finding Him.

"Raffles," otherwise Charlie Stauffer of the Republican staff is relieved of a great burden, and the Hub is relieved of a $25 Alfred Benjamin suit through the successful challenge made by Mr. Sidney Osborn of this city.

Mr. Stauffer has been accused many times of being the elusive Raffles, but never in the exact manner as prescribed until Sunday evening.

In The Republican of yesterday, a complete advance program was announced for circus day, but at about the time this copy was going to press, Raffles was apprehended, the notice being kept from the papers until Mr. Tharaldson was notified.

When caught, Mr. Raffles was passing the corner of First and Washington streets, when Mr. Osborn, who was a member of a group gathered there, approached and properly challenged him, thereby winning the $25 Alfred Benjamin suit.

It took a little persuasion to make Mr. Osborn believe that he had really caught "Raffles," as he took the reply and invitation as a joke at first.

Mr. Stauffer says he's glad to lose the name Raffles, and that plain "Charlie" is good enough for him.

The "Raffles" run has created more talk and guessing than any ordinary event has had in many days.

There are places where you can have your prescription filled for less money than we charge for compounding it. But there is no place where more care is used, purer drugs dispensed, greater pro-charge for your prescriptions. Every cent under our price represents so much sacrifice of purity, proficiency and promptness.
